

Disposal Resources in Kansas City

Clothing & Household Items

- PU Blessings Abound (thrift store supporting local non-profits)
- PU Cornerstones of Care (supporting trauma-informed care for kids)
- H KC Footprints (homeless veterans shelter and women's recovery home)
- H/PU KC for Refugees (aids refugees in their new home)
- F Mission Southside (partners w/ churches to help individuals in JOCO)
- Savers (thrift store supporting local non-profits)
- F TurnStyles (Catholic Charities thrift store)

*Some locations also offer Pick-up service (PU) and accept hygiene items (H) or food donations (F)

Specialty Items:

Dress For Success & UMKC Professional Wardrobe Program - outfits women & students in ready-to-wear professional attire & accessories for job interviews

Wayside Waifs - accepts pet and shelter supplies

Once Upon A Child - children's clothing & gear consignment shops

Kansas Historical Society - accepts donations related to the history of Kansas including papers, maps, photos, and records

Donate books, CDs, DVDs, and audiobooks to the Kansas City & Johnson County Public Libraries

Drop prescription medications at accepting pharmacies or a DEA-sponsored event
Visit <https://takebackday.dea.gov> for dates

Best Buy - trade-in or recycle appliances and electronics for a fee Staples - tech trade-in and free recycling of electronics (except TVs), toner, & rechargeable batteries Secure eCycle - securely recycles electronics for a fee

KidsTLC accepts arts & crafts supplies in support of kids behavioral & mental health services

Donate working appliances, furniture, and building materials to Habitat for Humanity's ReStore

Recycle CDs and DVDs via mail at cdrecyclingcenter.com

Junk Luggers - eco-friendly junk removal service Bagster - fill a dumpster bag found at Home Depot or Amazon and schedule haul away

Avenue of Life recycles mattresses while providing job training opportunities in the community Sleepyhead Beds provides gently used mattresses to children in need and recycles the rest

Shred documents with ProShred or visit
<https://capfed.com/privacy-and-security/shred-days> for free events

Household Hazardous Waste Facility drop-offs by appointment are free (Olathe residents may recycle electronics at no charge)

Check RecycleSpot.org for additional local recycling resources